

K-LOVE is one of the broadcasting stations that I most listen to every day. It supports family friendly, wholesome programing. It has a positive effect on my teenage daughters life as well as my own. It serves our whole nation well and should be able to continue as it has in the past. I listen to 105.3 faithfully and support it with a monthly contribution.